Serving in France since 1989

April 2006

Psalms 139:23-24 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Dear Praying friend,

The psalmist was aware of God's knowledge of him but invites God to search him, try him, and lead him. Being aware of God's omniscience is so helpful in our progressing with Him. He knows our frailties, our sinfulness and our failure to follow Him.

Trouble on the field

One of the members of our church wrote saying that France is on the verge of a revolution. Since the beginning of the school year most university classes have been canceled due to the unrest. This reminds me of the fact that we are all rebellious to God's plan for our lives. The message of the gospel still has the answer to the ultimate need of men whether they be French or some other nationality.

The joy of our lives

We praise the Lord for the close knit family that the Lord has given to us. It is a real joy to watch the boys grow and mature spiritually. This is evidenced in the thoughts they share when the Lord speaks to them through the preaching. We rejoice in the good grades they have brought home. The younger boys have come a long way this year with the help of tutors and loving teachers. We are thrilled!

Our Return to France

We are getting excited about getting back to France and the work that the Lord has called us to do there. We have been in close contact with one family who are excited about our arrival. Please begin to pray for the Lord's direction in housing, shipping, meeting place, and most of all that souls will be saved.

Pray for Laborers

Several of Isabelle's French students are planning on coming to visit us in view of a future ministry in a French speaking country. It looks like, God is getting ready to supply the need for one couple to come in a miraculous manner. More to follow...
